

Class Announcement

COMPOSITE DRAWING FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT, UPDATE 4:

Facial Reconstruction and Unknown Remains

Hosted by Stuart Parks Forensic Associates

June 8-12, 2026

Cataldo, Idaho

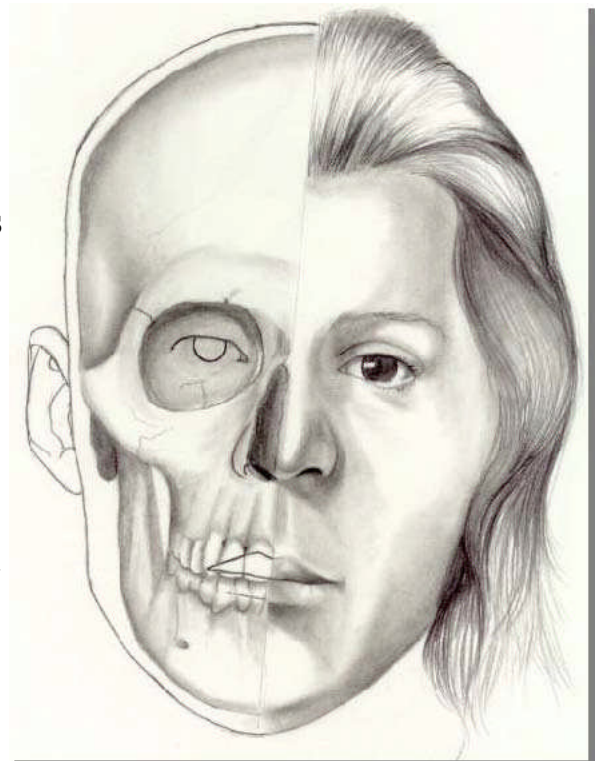

Information: This 40-hour workshop is open to former students and new students by instructor's permission. Cost is $795.00. Supplies are needed for this course and are included with this flier.

Participant may bring current cases to work on under supervision.

Class features

- Two dimensional facial reconstruction (drawing.)
- Clay facial reconstruction in certain locations.
- Postmortem composites, including image modification and aging.

Enrollment: Send your enrollment to Stuart Parks Forensic Associates, Carrie Stuart Parks, P.O. Box 73, Cataldo, ID 83810. (208) 682-2831. Email: carrie@stuartparks.com.

 If only taking the two-dimensional facial reconstruction, you will not need these supplies.

Supply List Facial Reconstruction

- Eraser strips
- Xacto knife
- Miter box (SMALL!!)

•

- Metric ruler
- White glue (Aleenes)
- Clay working tools ***
- Clay (flesh colored) 8 lbs. ***
- Human skull (get life size, several sources-can go to anatomical chart company)
- 2 cotton balls ***
- Clay roller ***
- Plastic cover for table ***
- Drafting tape
- You can order human eyes (manikin eyes) or create human eyes out of clay ***
- Small piece of fairly rough sandpaper ***
- Please bring all your regular drawing supplies as well.
- Light box

